

A bead slides on a circular wire loop in a constant gravitational field. The loop is constrained to rotate about its diameter which is located along the z -axis. The loop is forced to rotate about the diameter with a constant angular velocity ω .

Use the method of Lagrange undetermined multipliers to obtain an equation of motion for the polar angle θ and equations for the forces of constraint in terms of θ and $\dot{\theta}$.