

A mass M is free to slide down a frictionless wire inclined at an angle β . A pendulum of length l and mass m hangs from M , see figure below.

1. Choose the generalized coordinates s and θ given below in the figure, and derive the Lagrangian.
2. Derive the equations of motion.
3. For small oscillations, find the normal modes and their frequencies.

