Find the magnetic vector potential and the magnetic field at distance d above the center of the square loop (side a) carrying a current I in a counterclockwise direction.