

Problem.

In a certain frame K the electric field \vec{E} and the magnetic field \vec{B} are orthogonal. Is there a frame where the field is

(a) purely electric or (b) purely magnetic, and with what velocity should that frame(s) move with respect to K ?